Although the qualifying age for opening an account is eighteen (18) years and over, persons from the age of sixteen (16) years may open an Account with the Bank as per the qualification above, however, the individual must demonstrate that they have some form of employment hence the need for the Account.

2. Use of the Local Debit Card

The Debit Card will be accepted only at those Businesses Establishments offering the Bank of St Helena Local Debit Card Acceptance Service. However, it is not guaranteed that the Bank will be able to resolve the dispute. If fraudulent activity is suspected, where necessary the use of the appropriate Local Authorities will be engaged by the Bank.

If the Bank, during its investigations of a disputed transaction, subsequently discovers or suspects that the Cardholder has acted fraudulently or with gross negligence, the Bank may charge the Cardholder an Investigation Fee of Fifteen Pounds (£15.00) and may cancel, suspend or withdraw the Debit Card.

If, following a good faith investigation by the Bank, the investigation results in the Bank concluding the transaction was authorised or no error has been made, the Bank's conclusion shall be final and binding on the Cardholder.

5. Lost or Stolen Local Debit Cards

If the Debit Card is lost or stolen, or it is suspected that the Debit Card may have been used fraudulently or without the Cardholder's consent, the Cardholder must notify Bank Card Services immediately by telephone on 22829 and confirm in writing as soon as possible. In the event of loss or theft, Cardholders may also block the Debit Card immediately by calling the Telephone Card Service on 25335.

- b) The Bank shall not be bound to recognise the interest or claim of any person other than the Cardholder in respect of the available balance on the Debit Card, nor shall the Bank be liable in any way for failing to recognise such an interest or claim (except as required by law).

It is the responsibility of Registered Customers, with multiple users on accounts, to update user(s) access rights, and delete users where appropriate. The Bank does not accept liability for any transactions carried out by users given access rights by Registered Customers, but which may act contrary to the wishes of the Registered Customer.

The Bank will never ask Registered Customers for their full password or security details; registered customers must not disclose their Online Banking details to anyone claiming to be Bank personnel. If a Registered Customer is approached to disclose their Online Banking details, the Registered Customer must contact the Bank on telephone number +290 22829 during normal business working hours whereupon the Bank will be able to confirm the authenticity of the approach.

Where the Registered Customer suspects that a third party is aware of their password or security details, the Registered Customer must inform the Bank on telephone number +290 22829 during normal business working hours. Failure to do so, will result in the Registered Customer being liable for any unauthorised payments on their account confirmed by the use of their password or security details.

The Registered Customer is responsible for all instructions given by then or anyone acting with their authority between the times the customer passes the security procedure, as part of the login process, up to the time the customer logs out of the Online Banking Service. Registered customers should not leave the computer, or other equipment on which they are accessing Online Banking, unattended whilst logged on to the Online Banking service.

The Bank has measures in place to ensure, as far as possible, the security of Online Banking.
